ROYAL ARCANUM.

The Reverend Louis Kuhlman, who has been pastor of the German Evangelical Church of East St. Louis for the last eight years, preached his farewell sermon yesterday and will depart today for Chicago, where he has been called to the pastorate of a large church there.

Former C. N. Steppes was notified and held an inquest yesterday afternoon. The jury returned a verdict that death was due to natural causes.

The resolutions were in favor of the passage of local option laws, for which the people of Alton could vote and be elected. Such a law will be enacted by the Legislature and it is to be expected of the influence of the legislators that the resolutions were sent throughout the State.

FOUND DEAD IN HER BED.

POLICE MATRON TAKES CARE OF PRETTY YOUNG GIRL.

Stella Heyner, 16 years old, applied at the Central District Station Saturday evening for shelter, saying her mother was dead and an aunt had turned her from her home.

Mrs. Heyner, the girl's aunt, appeared at the Four Courts yesterday afternoon and told Captain Reynolds that Stella had left home of her own accord because she would not permit her to remain out late at night.

Mrs. Heyner lives at No. 16 Carpenter place. The girl's father is a carpenter, a livery stable at Lehigh and Clark ave. Mr. Captain Reynolds has recognized him as such. The girl was a victim of the "Club." She is a delicate young woman.

Mr. Heyner lives at No. 16 Carpenter place. The girl's father is a carpenter, a livery stable at Lehigh and Clark ave. Mr. Captain Reynolds has recognized him as such. The girl was a victim of the "Club."

The girl is one of the most refined young women Matron Kincaid has had in her charge for shelter. She is neatly attired and carried herself well. She arrived at the station several dresses and other clothing. She has dark eyes, an abundance of dark hair and is prepossessing in appearance.
